POLLUTION IN KM AREA NEIGHBOURHOOD OF KENYATTA UNIVERSITY
KENYATTA UNIVERSITY
PREPARED BY: NANCY WACHIURI

Dumping of garbage behind student’s hostels along Polytechnic Road
Comment: This is a public health hazard to the residents of KM.

Waste water flowing along Biashara Street.
The waste water is generated by the business premises in the area.

A club along the railway line separating KM and Kenyatta University. One of the major causes of noise pollution in the area.
Control measure: A more stringent check up on high noise levels.

Use of woodfuel and charcoal is common in KM area. It may result in health problems.

Dust that has settled on Vegetation over time.