

Hi there...

Welcome to our second Kenyatta University DisAbility matters blog post. I'm your host Albert. Albert Einstein.

Today we are going to talk about SERVICE. Service is defined as the action of helping or doing work for someone.

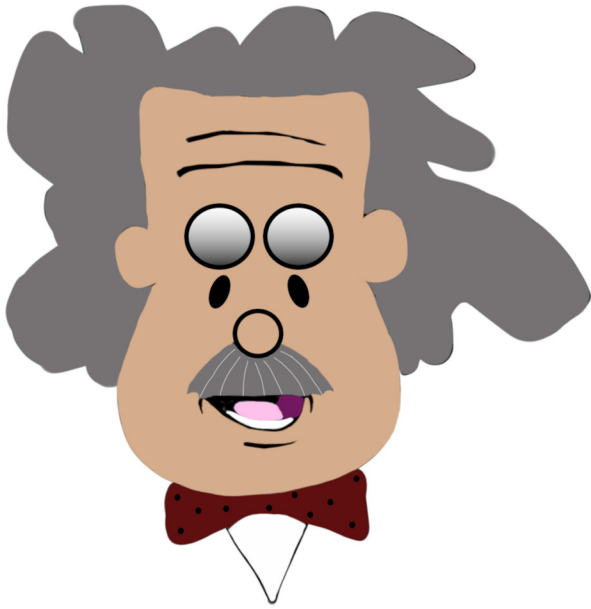

Let's look at the services rendered to both students and staff with disabilities through Kenyatta University's Directorate of Disability Services.

SERVICES RENDERED TO:

STUDENTS

- Providing students with visual impairment with information in alternative format (Braille, large print, soft copy etc).
- Identifying, in collaboration with the Directorate of Accommodation Services, suitable accommodation facilities for students with special needs.
- Linking students with Disabilities to bodies that may offer financial assistance.
- Acquisition of assistive devices through linkages with national and international organizations that may provide such devices.
- Collaborating with the University administration and teaching departments to ensure that students with Disabilities receive appropriate instructional and support services to facilitate their learning, particularly for those with hearing impairment.
- Liaising with the administration, Estates and other relevant sections of the University to remove environmental barriers on campuses.
- Providing information on funding for higher education by various bodies that may support PWD.

SERVICES RENDERED TO:

STAFF

- Providing information on Registration procedures with the National Council for Persons With Disabilities (NCPWD)
- Linking staff who require assistive devices with funding agencies.
- Facilitate in liason with HRM; the process of tax exemption with Kenya Revenue Authority (KRA) in line with the Persons With Disabilities Act (2013).
