

Ngari Lazarus K.

Title/Qualification: Dr. PhD

Department: History, Archaeology and Political Studies

Position: Lecturer

Area of Specialization

1. Archaeology
2. Professional Affiliation
3. St. Lawrence University And The National Museums Of Kenya

Research/Projects

1. In Search Of Our Ancestors: Archaeology In The Magadi Basin

Funded Projects/Consultancies

Recent Archaeological Research in The Magadi Basin, Southern Kenya

Publications/Exhibitions

1. `Iron Working In the Upper Tana 'In Pwiti, G. And Soper, R. Aspects Of African Archaeology. Harare, University Of Zimbabwe Publication pp. 505 – 507.
2. `The Origins of the Asian Questions' In the Eastern African Journal Of Historical And Social Sciences Research Vol. No. 1 1996.
3. `Pottery Manufacture Among The Mbeere Of Kenya,' MVITA, Bulletin Of The Regional Centre For Study Of Archaeology In Eastern And Southern Africa. Issue No. 7 pp. 21 – 28. Also Available On the Internet In French And English.
4. `Non - Governmental Organisation in Kenya,' In Aseka et. al The Political Economy Of Transition. Nairobi: 8 Publishers.
5. `Research Findings On The Iron Using Communities Of The Upper Tana And Their Enviroment,' In CHEMI-CHEMI Vol.1 No.1. Faculty Of Arts Journal, Kenyatta University.
6. Principles Of Archaeology. Nairobi. A Publication Of Institute Of Open Learning, Kenyatta University.
7. Sources Of African History. Nairobi. A Publication Of Institute Of Open Learning, Kenyatta University.

8. Olkena, A Late Stone Age Site On The North – Western Lagoons Of Lake Magadi In Nyame Akuma, No. 60 December 2003. Billetin Of The Society Of Africanist Archaeologists.

Recognition/Awards

1. Kenya Government And Kenyatta University Scholarships To Study B.ED, M.A. And PhD Degrees At Kenyatta University Between 1986 And 2004
2. CODESRIA Research Grants For My PhD Work (1986-2004)
3. SAREC/SIDA Research Grants For My PhD Work (1986-2004)
4. UNESCO And Belgium Government Fellowship To Study Geodata Management/Geoinformatics At The Royal Museum Of Central Africa In Turvuren-Belgium (2005-2006)